Waller, who with the others have cleaned up handsomely on the event days before its running. This is anti-post gambling with a vengeance. Today Mr. Whitney declared Artful, the favorite for the big race out of the handicap. The reason given was that although the great mare had worked a fast mile at Brookdale, she did not recover from the effort as well as Trainer Rogers expected. She did not come back to her feed and acted nervously.

Mr. Whitney, in the interest of the public, which and already invested heavily on the chances of the mare, promptly made the declaration.

Dandelion is now the choice for the big Brooklyn Jockey Club event.

The racing to-day was witnessed by a large throng. Several favorites went by the board, but nearly every horse was well backed.

Sarachnesa, in the second race, proved himself to rank among the crackjacks when he galloped off with that event for two-year-olds.

Favorite Is Beaten.

Prince Frederick was played heavily to win the first, although Tipotee went off the nose favorite. The price against Pater was 10 to 1. Pater, however, got off to a perfectly even break. Pater showed the way to the stretch and at his mare's head point to have the race. But Saracinesca, who was the odds-on favorite, coming on the outside, smothered Pater's chances. The first two fought to the wire, Pater pulling winning by half a length. Arcanuth beat the others for third.

Saracinesca Fast.

Saracinesca, in the second race, proved himself the colt his reputation on pretensions had declared him to be. He tore-ropeed the race, and won in such a manner as to stamp him a class-back among the best of the two-year-olds thus far shown. Eusebio and Belcast, the former a long shot, and the latter played heavily to beat the winner, fought it out for second and third, the long shot getting second honor position by half a length.

It was like taking candy from a baby when he looked in the third, for Anna May, Barbary the third, was a heavily backed, thousands being wagered on their chances to win. It remained for Saghaden to upset the calculations, for the filly came out of the tussle at the head of the stretch and won by a mile. Saghaden went right on about her affairs in a business-like way, winning easily at Athens outstayed the others, getting the place, with the well-tried Anna May, from Millionaire Rainey's stable. Third, The latter was strong, but it was a heavy improvement. Heats 20 to 22.

Security Led Grapple

Grapple, the winner of the Metropolitan Handicap, had to play second fiddle to the faster Security to-day, and Security was the first horse to get off the mark. He led the race, but the New Rochelle Handicap at his mercy from the first jump when he got off in the lead. Security was a fast runner, but the rest for the mile easily. At the stretch turn all went wide, including the wily Grapple, who was in the lead. Security overtook the flying leader, Bandy, looking better than when he last performed, then being hot-foot, finished third.

Easy for Broadcloth.

The fifth was "in" before it was run, in the estimation of the backers of John. He was a fast runner, and he was to pass. "Christie" Sullivan, little gelding. Rye, as played to the limit, but he best he could do after a game fight from the start, was to finish second. Wrenna was a tight third at long odds.

Bullseye Made Good.

Bullseye, formerly Sandy D., and a good one under that title, won the final race of the day easily. Rat was a good second, with Rose of Gold third. The crowd was turning to the stretch when he tired, Bullseye then coming away.

MASONIC BURGLAR

CONFESSES IN COURT.

William Metelsky, alias Dead Shot Dick, and who is known to the police as the Alconico burglar, was today indicted for burglary in the first degree by the Grand Jury in the Kings County Court.

Ever since his capture two weeks ago the police have been straining every nerve to get all the evidence they could pile up against this thief who is acknowledged to be one of the most dan-ious in the business. They were surprised when the prisoner pleaded guilty after his arraignment. He will be sentenced next Monday and will probably stay at the limit.

Metelsky has been connected with at least twenty burglaries in Brooklyn during the identification of loot at headquarters. On May 1 he entered the home of George E. Gale at No. 17 Cambridge street. He awakened Mr. Gale and spying his Masonic ring left the house, declaring he would not rob a Mason. He was caught through a stool pichen in Chinatown, and through the house of a well known trinket of a woman friend known as Essie.

LIMB RAW AS

SPEEDY CURE BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I suffered with humor for about three years, off and on. I finally saw a doctor and he gave me remedies that did me no good, so I tried Cuticura when my limb below the knee to the ankle was as raw as a piece of beef. All I used was the Cuticura Soap and the Ointment. I bathed with it and used about six or seven boxes of Ointment. I was thoroughly cured of the humor in three weeks and haven't been affected with it since. I use no other Soap than Cuticura now. I remain, yours respectfully, H. J. Myers, U. S. N., U. S. S. Newark, New York, July 8, 1905.

GOING TO HUSTLE ON BLACKWELL BRIDGE

Early in April the East Side Improvement Association and other organizations interested in completing the bridge, called on the Mayor and demanded that the city take some action to call off the strike which since January has stopped the work.

The men, who were working for $12 a day, demanded $5. They reduced the demand to $4.50 and the Mayor wrote C. Felson, president of the Steel Workers' union, asking that a settlement be made. Vice-President Reinder, of the company, called at the Mayor's office and said the company would arrange to have the work go on before May 2. The men said that seven or eight hundred workers are at the bridge.
